The Nottingham Women's Health Award - 2016

In 2001 a Nottingham GP, Dr Gill Ioannou, donated monies to the Society to create The Nottingham Women's Health Award. The aim of the biennial award is to encourage research into and/or the dissemination or implementation of women's health, sexual health or family planning issues in the local community.

This year the Nottingham Medico-Chirurgical Society is offering a prize of up to £1000 for the best application submitted.

ELIGIBILITY

To apply you must be working in the East Midlands and be:

- A doctor or nurse working in a hospital or the community
- A midwife or community nurse
- A doctor or nurse in general practice
- A family planning doctor or nurse
- A medical or nursing student or research assistant

APPLICATIONS

To apply, please write or email, giving brief personal information and details of how the award would be spent (include objectives, costs and any other support for the proposed project/study) to: Nottingham Medico-Chirurgical Society, Postgraduate Education Centre, NUH, City Hospital Campus, Hucknall Road, Nottingham, NG5 1PB. (email: ann.booth@nuh.nhs.uk)

Your application should arrive no later than Friday 26 February 2016

The winner will be requested to attend the Society's AGM (15 June 2016) to give a short presentation on their paper and to be presented with their award.
